GOLDEN OLDIES

The pupils of Old Hammondtown went back in time to the 50s this past week as they costumed themselves to represent the era of their parents and greatly enjoyed the change.

Just for the fun of it, we join them to repeat a pen and ink sketch last seen on our cover on Volume I, # 22, on August 22, 1954.

This drawing is of the railway of Andrew Alden's Aucoot Boatyard railway and the snaking channel to the open water. A lot of water has passed over the marsh since this one hit the paper.

SELECTMEN AND PERSONNEL BOARD AGREE ON WAGE CHANGES

A combined vote of the Selectmen and Personnel Board members last Tuesday makes way for changes in the way the salary structure is determined for town employees. The changes include proposed changes in the by-laws that must now be voted on at the annual town meeting. The Selectmen urged all those involved to attend the meeting to push for the passage of the changes.

A large group of town department heads was present at the meeting and each commented they were pleased with the proposal as outlined by Selectman James F. Huntoon on a display board. Water/Sewer Commissioner Charles A. Morgan termed this "a good start".

One of the changes include moving present fulltime clerical and administrative personnel up one full grade for fiscal 1987. This change will require a by-law change in the "classification section" and will affect nine employees, said Huntoon. Impact on the budget will reflect a $2,379 increase for the step grade increase plus the five percent increase.

A second change recommended is a five percent across the board cost of living increase to all town employees, including those with an upgrade in classification.

Thirdly, to seek funding from MMA (Massachusetts Municipal Association) to study part and full time wages and salary structure of those employees in the jurisdiction of the Selectmen and Personnel Board.

Lastly, to amend the Personnel By-Laws allowing one member of the five-member board to include a member of the Board of Selectmen. Huntoon said the Selectmen have checked the legality of this proposed action with town counsel and Donald J. Fleming explained it is a legal procedure, but that it requires a town meeting vote.

William "Nick" Nicholson, Water/Sewer Superintendent, said, "I am pleased with your action. This will end a lot of my frustration and I'm sure employees will be happy too."

Huntoon commented that the Selectmen are presenting this plan in a good faith effort to support the department heads who have been seeking upgrading for their clerks and will be done in a professional way. He added that the town employees' unions are the fastest growing unions in the country and they're thinking ahead so they won't have to contend with a union.

Speaking on behalf of the Library Trustees, Beatrice Johnson and Mary Jean Blasdale related their frustrations in interviewing several applicants for the vacancy of head librarian and assistant librarian. The beginning salary of $10,200 for a head librarian with a degree and experience was reacted to in disbelief by the applicants, said Mrs. Blasdale. This proposed increase will make the job more acceptable to qualified applicants. Mrs. Johnson said the town has high standards at the library and the town deserves a good librarian.

MET WITH Leroy Jones of 53 Long Plain Road and David Garro of 67 Long Plain Road, who presented a petition to urge the board to seek a street light on the curve on Long Plain Road (opposite 67 Long Plain Road) to help alleviate the numerous auto accidents that occur on this treacherous dark curve. The petition reads, "we strongly feel that your immediate attention may help save lives".

Jones related there have been two accidents there in the past week; in one accident two Fairhaven men were injured, one seriously. He added that there was a reflector light there at one time; however, vandals have removed it.

The Selectmen agreed unanimously to put an emergency article in the town warrant seeking the light. A cost figure will have to be obtained from the Com/Electric Company for the light; a pole is presently in place.

Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta urged the two men to get the petitioners to attend the town meeting to speak up about the accidents and condition of the road. "Too often a petition is placed on the warrant and the backers fail to attend the meeting," DeCosta noted.

HEARD FROM Building Inspector David E. Crook regarding a Cease and Desist Order being placed against Andrew E. and Elizabeth M. Lynch, 25 Prospect Road, and prohibits any further wiring, plumbing or sanitary system installation until all permits have been issued, including the necessary action by the Board of Appeals. Crook noted the Lynches have taken the order of the Appeals Board and have stopped work on the premises.

Crook related that he, and Donald Wood, Board of Health Agent, investigated the complaint regarding construction work and septic system work being completed without the required permits from the town. The illegal work included conversion of a "bunk house" type of structure to a dwelling unit and installation of a septic system. Also projects in the main house had not been permitted.

On a similar matter, Pamela Sisson met with the board to discuss a Cease and Desist Order delivered to her that day by Officer R. Stanley Ennis on behalf of the building inspector.

Earlier, the building inspector informed Selectmen Ms. Sisson is building a house at 175 Brandt Island Road (in the flood plain zone) and is occupying the house without an occupancy permit. Crook said the wiring and plumbing is incomplete and there is a 10-foot drop from a deck that has no stairs. He feels the house is unsafe to be occupied. He stressed the possibility of a liability to the town and a huge lawsuit if there was an accident, especially as she had taken out a building permit with the town.

Ms. Sisson said she is also building a house in Marion and at the present time has no place to live except the Brandt Island house. The board recommended she stay in a motel until work is completed.

Ms. Sisson admitted there is a small list of things that need to be done and that she is the builder of record. She asked what the provisions would be with the order. Selectman DeCosta said there could be a $1,000 a day fine; it's the law. She explained she needed the house to set up her bookkeeping business.

The building inspector plans to return on March 13 to check the premises for occupancy and the police department will be notified to check daily on occupancy. She promised she would not live on the premises but would only be there to see that the work is done. She noted work on the 30 feet of railing has been held up because of the weather.

WILL REFER FOR TOWN MEETING an article from Town Clerk Lois Ennis requesting that new fire protected doors be installed on the town clerk's vault. She estimated the price of two six-hour doors, 40 inches wide and 78 inches high, at $2234. each, plus installation cost.

RECEIVED WORD from SEMASS officials that the Rochester waste-to-energy plant will accept tires if included in normal load of refuse. However, tires would not be accepted in bulk. The company is aware that this problem is growing and intends to look into the matter further.

ANNOUNCED that Beach Director Albert A. Boucher will be resigning as of April 1, 1986. Boucher has been director of the town beach program for 31 years. He indicated he plans to visit his son and his family in Germany this summer. He thanked the Selectmen and the residents of Mattapoisett for their cooperation and kind consideration throughout the years.

NOTED that the town highway department has moved the No Parking sign from its former place affixed to the street post on Mechanic and Church Streets to a position 30 to 40 feet from the corner of the two streets towards Route 6.

Following many complaints from residents regarding the parking sign, Safety Officer R. Stanley Ennis viewed the area and recommended the signs be moved.

FISH & QUIPS

1 There is a French saying, "Poisson sans vin est poison" and while it is unlikely that anyone was ever poisoned by eating fish without wine, a good bottle of wine does add to the enjoyment of carefully prepared seafood. The Chablis and Rhine wines are very suitable.

2 SQUID - Italian cooks have long sung the praises of the delicious "Calamari", with its chewy texture and sweet rich flavor. Try the Chowder House Fried Calamari Plate. Only $3.95

3 To enhance the flavor of the simpler fish dishes, try a tangy sauce. Pour over the fried, baked or broiled fish just before serving.

Here's how Chiropractic treats
Athletic Injuries

Most athletes have come to recognize the hazards involved in their activities, and are among the most regular patients of chiropractic.

It is important to consult your doctor of chiropractic regularly, regardless of your type of recreational activity. If you are a parent, it is important to make certain your child does not suffer a spinal problem.

Your doctor of chiropractic will detect and correct subluxations, however incurred, and will arrest or prevent problems which they would produce. Chiropractic treatments can not only re-establish nerve function, but will relax you as well. With improved health, your enjoyment of your recreational activity will be enhanced.

"Voices from the High School"

TO BE STAGED BY ORRHS THEATER CLUB

A teenager in the 1980s is not radically different from a teenager in any other era. They still cope with peer pressure, faulty communication, jealousy, innocence, embarrassment and frustration. There are problems which can have dire consequences - drug and alcohol abuse, pregnancy and suicide, but there is also hope, good advice, first love and the absurdity that is a part of the human condition.

"Voices from the High School", by Peter Dee, illuminates these various elements of life without reaching any conclusions or offering any answers. It is a celebration and an examination of experience. It does offer an ideal opportunity for families to join in discussions of the issues raised. "Voices" realistically portrays today, as seen through the eyes of our young adults.

This play was selected because of its relevance and for the opportunities it provides for teens to portray teens. "Voices" makes it clear that teens are no longer children. They face serious issues, sometimes life-and-death issues.

"Voices" will not rest easily with all parents, but for those concerned with the realities of growing up in the 80s, it will give stimulation and provocation.

Director David B. Boyce and choreographer Marcia Mellor have spiced their production with comedy, drama, music and dance, guaranteed to provide an evening full of entertainment.

"Voices from the High School" will be presented on Saturday, April 5th, at 8:00 p.m., and Sunday, April 6th, at 2:00 p.m. in the Bristol Auditorium of ORRHS.

Tickets are $4. for the general public and $2.50 for students and senior citizens.

Come and see "Voices from the High School". You will laugh and cry and think. What more could you ask for?

Thank You

The Industrial Arts Department of Old Rochester Regional High School would like to thank Sippican Ocean Systems, Inc. for the donation of a hydraulic press and sheet metal. We would also like to thank Mahoney Building Supply Center for the donation of

SPECIAL THANKS FOR A GREAT CHOWDER COOK-OFF

I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all who attended the Chowder Cook-off last Sunday. "Hats Off" to all the firefighters and a special thanks to David Peterson for organizing and looking after every detail. A sincere thanks to the staff at the Chowder House for they do all of the work. We will certainly be back next year to defend our title.

THANK YOU

The Rochester Memorial School Parent Teacher Association wishes to thank the voters of the town who made a concerted effort to attend the Special Town Meeting on such a dreary, foggy night.

We feel a very special thank you is in order to the Rochester Senior Citizens who stood in great numbers showing their support for the proposed renovation and addition of Memorial School. Many are living under the constraints of fixed income, but they believe that the future of Rochester

Historic Markers

ATTENTION: LAST CALL

The Mattapoisett Historic Commission will be sending in the last yearly order for Historic Markers this March 22nd. Those home owners who have received eligibility forms for a plaque and would like one, please call Priscilla Hathaway immediately to ensure a marker, or call if you have any questions concerning this program, 758-3579 before 8:00 p.m. We would like to remind those persons who received markers over two years ago and who have not placed them on their buildings, that this was the purpose of this Historic Marker Program. We would appreciate it if you would honor that agreement and make the effort to do so. We also must inform those new owners of old buildings that these plaques are to remain on the facade of the property acquired as the Mattapoisett Historical Commission orginally agreed upon when the markers were given out and ensure that they stay on the building. If for some reason one does not wish to display the plaque it should be returned to the Mattapoisett Historical Commission, which is a Town Commission.

We have appreciated the overwhelming response to the Marker Program which has taken almost ten years of concentrated effort of a few persons to produce. Over 200 buildings have been researched, deed by deed, and over 150 markers have been awarded. The original State Forms are placed on file with the Massachusetts Historical Commission in Boston, and copies may be viewed at the Mattapoisett Historical Society and the Town Clerk's Office.

Harold Roeder, our trip coordinator, announces the Maine Coast Lobsterbake, a three day trip to Camden and Boothbay Harbor in Maine. This is a repeat of one of the most enjoyed trips that we made last year. We plan a few variations from last year's trip, as we anticipate a number of Seniors will plan to go again and will appreciate a few changes that Harold will make, but we will still make our location in the Cozy Trade Winds Motor Inn located on the harbor in the heart of downtown Rockland. The first evening we will savor a delicious dinner with choice of menu (including lobster) in the hotel's Red Jacket Restaurant, as well as cocktails and entertainment. The second day is an exciting day of sightseeing in midcoast Maine, including the lovely harbor of Camden, up to the summit of Mt. Battie in Camden Hills State Park with its breathtaking view of the seascape and on returning to the hotel enjoy a delicious lobster bake (chowder, clams, corn on the cob, two lobsters and all the beer and wine you can drink). That afternoon you will enjoy a sightseeing cruise of Boothbay Harbor and have time to wander the narrow streets and shop at the that provides reading of daily newspapers, current magazines, shopping guides, and other material previously available only as printed material. A "print-handicapped" person may have either a visual or physical impairment or both.

How much does it cost? The only cost is a special radio receiver that costs about $85. There is no charge for the service itself. TIC Radio says that no one is ever turned away because of inability to afford a receiver. It is possible for example to pay for the receiver in small monthly installments or TIC will help secure assistance from government grants or other sources.

TIC broadcasts everyday from 7 a.m. until midnight. You can hear TIC throughout Massachusetts, but you must have the special radio receiver. TIC's offices and studios are located in Marshfield and may be reached by a toll-free call at 1-800-992-9505. You may also write to TIC at Library Plaza, Marshfield, MA.02050.

TIC is also looking for volunteers to help with many aspects of the program from reading to lectures on special interest fields. Every volunteer is provided a complete training program so whatever your skill or interest it is likely that TIC can use your help.

Spring into Jazz Series

BLUE HORIZON JAZZ BAND

The Fairhaven Savings Bank is sponsoring a special "Spring into Jazz" concert series at the Rotch-Jones-Duff House & Garden Museum beginning Friday, March 21st, at 8 p.m. The first of three concerts will feature the internationally-known "Blue Horizon Jazz Band" under the leadership of Stan McDonald. The public is invited and there is no admission charge. Doors at 396 County Street, New Bedford will open at 7:30 p.m.

The "Blue Horizon Jazz Band" reveals a traditional jazz identity in the true spirit of masters as Sidney Bechet, Louis Armstrong, Scott Joplin, and Jelly Roll Morton. Stan McDonald achieved national and international recognition during the 70s as the "New Black Eagle Jazz Band" most impressive member which included a decade of outstanding performances, recordings and tours from Norway to California and earned him the distinction of world class reedman and spiritual heir of the peerless Sidney Bechet. The "Blue Horizon Jazz Band" is a group of veteran

Reunited with McDonald, Walter Miller (trumpet) and Fred Walsh (trombone) share the distinction of rededicating the outstanding front line that flourished in the 1960s as that of the Historic Jazz Band - the first group to revive the classic jazz tradition in the Boston area.

Jazzy Joga Fitness

Jazzy Joga Fitness will start the Spring session on Monday, March 24th. This 10-week session will run from March 24th to June 5th on Monday and Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Classes are held at the Center School and cost is $30.00.

Jazzy Joga is a very challenging coed adult exercise program. It is rhythmic and all routines are choreographed. Jazzy Joga is not an aerobic dancing program, but does have an aerobic component done at the end of class.

Jazzy Joga has a lot of floor work. Specific exercises work the key posture muscles - abdominals, hips, thighs, buttocks, waist, arms, chest and lower back. Exercises will help tone and shape, promote flexibility and strengthen. An aerobic component follows (15 minutes) to promote cardiovascular endurance. This is your key to weight loss or fat loss - the part where you really burn the calories and work the cardiovascular system (heart and lungs). Participants are encouraged to do this at their own level. Cool down and stretching follows.

Have fun and make the commitment to good health. Exercise should be as important as brushing your teeth, eating, sleeping, enjoying recreational activities or relaxing. Hope to see you at the registra-

"WE EXIST TO HELP YOU"
reported by VIRGINIA ARRAL

Many changes have been made in services to the elderly, representatives from the state Executive Office of Elder Affairs informed Council on Aging members and seniors from Mattapoisett, Marion, Fairhaven, Acushnet and Rochester March 6 at Old Rochester Regional High School auditorium.

State Representative John C. Bradford, who represents these five towns and is actively engaged in programs for seniors, hosted the program to keep seniors informed He gave the telephone numbers where he can be reached for assistance if any senior has a problem - his home in Rochester, 763-8540, or his office in Boston, 1-772-1090.

Chet Jakubiak, Director of Program Management, said the most vital changes have been in the Home Care Program, which will receive over $107 million in next year's budget.

The 27 Home Care Corporations in the state service 44,000 elders. Important changes for the better include the new assessment procedure: new sliding scale fee to assure that higher income frail elders receive service; the $2. million for Respite Care; and the Social Day Care program. He noted the respite care is done 80 percent by relatives and friends and each patient receives $3,500 worth of services each year.

The director also noted concerns the Elder Affairs Office has for the new DRG Program (Diagnosis-Related Groups) whereby patients are discharged early from the hospital. Rubye Finger, representing Rochester Council on Aging, commented she could not let the director put the onus on hospitals; hospitals do not put people out on the street, she said. The director countered her remarks, saying he agreed, but that patients are sometimes readmitted with problems that should have been treated on the first hospital visit. He said, "Clearly, if you're going to make a profit, you're going to get pressure to discharge early."

Among them are: set policies at senior centers; act as role models for other elders; educate the seniors to services available; stress the need for volunteers; attend local college courses on gerontology; educate the public through the press, church bulletins, and senior newsletters; provide updated reports to local officials; hold candidates' nights and host voter registration; sponsor a multi-plan medical clinic; involve elders in Outreach, Friendly Visitors and Walking Groups; be an advocate to hospitals, town officials and state officers on vital issues to elders.

The third spokesman was Emmett Schmarsow, Council on Aging grants manager. He described himself as "the money man" - the link between need and resources. He described the Councils on Aging in the state, and how the formula and discretionary grants

In summarizing the areas covered by the State Elder Affairs Office, the director listed the Home Care Program which received 100 percent funding from the state dollars, and receives the largest distribution of funds; the second largest budget is the Nutrition Program with 350 nutrition sites serving seven million meals last year, 49 percent home deliveries reaching frail elders allowing them to stay in their homes. The third largest budget is the Councils on Aging with over 337 in the state, servicing 350,000 seniors at 223 senior centers (some fulltime and some parttime). Their funding has increased from $1.2 million in 1983 to $2.3 million in 1986.

The fourth largest program is a new one started this past year - SHINE - Serving Health Information Needs of the Elderly - a service that provides information on Medi-Gap, Medex and other insurance needs. The fifth is the Senior Aide Program that employs seniors over the age of 55 with low incomes in meaningful jobs. A service begun two years ago is the Protective Service Program designed to help those elders being abused. This has been very successful and is presently servicing over 900 elders. Referrals are made from police departments, Councils on Aging and home care programs: the director noted the state hopes to see this service grow into a statewide guardian commission. The next three programs include the Home Care Corporations servicing over 44,000 elders; the "Keep Moving" program; and the Elder Advocate Program, where persons attend local and state meetings to follow legislation on a wide range of subjects to help seniors.

The last program, and one of the most important, is the toll-free 24-hour Emergency Hot Line Service to report elder abuse, any other emergency, or any problem facing an elder person --- 1-800-922-2275.

Jakubiak concluded saying what with the preventive programs available there are more elders now, as they are living longer, and although it is easy to show seniors needing help, seniors really play a vital role today.

MAPLE SUGARING at the Children's Museum in Dartmouth continues during the month of March. Weekend walks are held on Saturdays from 12 to 2 and Sundays from 2 to 4, and include identification of trees, tapping of the trees and collecting the sap. A visit to the Museum's Maple Sugar House allows visitors to watch as the sap is boiled down to make maple syrup. Visitors may then have a chance to taste the real product.

with hospital admission and dispelling fears associated with hospitalization. In years past, Tobey has invited area students to tour the Hospital. However, this year's program is the first in an ongoing series to bring Hospital personnel to the schools.

Pediatric Nurse Manager Maureen McGrath-Quaranto, R.N. is heading the committee to plan activities for the Week, with the assistance of the Public Relations Office. "The staff is enthusiastic," she exclaims. "we're excited about reaching the children, many of whom have had no occasion as yet to visit the Hospital." Members of the Nursing Department are planning a Puppet Show and personnel from Radiology, Laboratory, Rehabilitation, and Respiratory Care will demonstrate simple procedures, distribute handouts, including the Hospital's own coloring book, and answer questions.

In subsequent years, schools in each of the communities served by the Hospital will be approached to participate in the program.

Audiences for The Guthrie Theatre's touring production of GREAT EXPECTATIONS, coming to the Zeiterion Theatre in New Bedford on Sunday, March 23rd, at 7:30 p.m., will find the same: a compelling story filled with fascinating personalities.

A Good Name Is Rather To Be Chosen Than Great Riches.
Prov. 22:1

Charles Dickens' novel GREAT EXPECTATIONS, first published in 1860-61, is a masterful blend of adventure, mystery, romance, comedy and Gothic horror. This production, adapted by Barbara Field and directed by Stephen Kanee, captures the picaresque world of Victorian England as well as the memorably eccentric characters that are a hallmark of Dickens' works. The drama centers around the adventures of Pip, the orphan who is fashioned to be a gentleman of "great expectations", and the many fascinating people who shape his life: Miss Havisham, the beautiful and bitterly cold Estelle, the charming dilettante Herbert Pocket, the escaped convict Magwitch and the mysterious and worldly lawyer Mr. Jaggers. Which of these characters is the patron who provides Pip with the fortune necessary for his pursuit of gentlemanly status? Pip's saga leads to a discovery of the powers of forgiveness and regeneration.

The Guthrie Theatre was the first regional repertory theatre established in the United States, founded by Sir Tyrone Guthrie in Minneapolis in 1963. Today it is one of the foremost regional theatres in America, honored last year with a Tony Award for excellence. Its international
